Stanley Skins T. Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, August 14.—The personal and political relations of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and George W. Perkins, formerly of J. P. Morgan & Company, were bitterly attacked on the floor of the House today by Representative A. O. Stanley of Kentucky, who is chairman of the Steel Trust Investigating Committee.

TEN-INNING BATTLE

Results in Maysville Losing Game
1 to 0 at Lexington
Yesterday

Rivermen Drop Back Again to Second Place

LEXINGTON, Ky., August 14th, 1912.—

The Colts, frisky after their two days' rest, and wanting to show the new manager, Teddy McGrew, what they are capable of, put up the game of their lives yesterday and as a result put a game on Maysville by the score of 1 to 0, the contest being prolonged to 10 innings.

The contest, besides being a solace for the feelings of the fans, injured by the exhibitions of Saturday and Sunday, had far-reaching results on the race in the Bluegrass League. When the game started Maysville was in first place by a slight margin, with Frankfort second, Richmond and Lexington a close fourth. While the Colts were winning from Maysville, Frankfort took one from Richmond, thereby putting Frankfort first, Maysville in second, and Lexington went back into third, which they consider to be rightfully their own through possession.

McGrew made himself solid with the fans from the start.

Yesterday was just one week from the day that Turner pitched the fourteen-inning game at Frankfort, and he celebrated the anniversary by pitching one of the prettiest games of the season. The hard-hitting Maysville men stopped in their tracks on every occasion, in the second inning fanning the side.

The score:

Lexington 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1

Two base hits—Wessell. First on base—Off Turner 2, off Beer 4. Stolen bases—McGrew 2, Mack, Turner, Clever, Lake. Struck out—By Beer 11, by Turner 9. Left on bases—Lexington 9, Maysville 6. Sacrifice hits—Langenham, Carmony, Curtis, Turner. Double plays—Edmonson to Wessell to McGrew. Game began 3:28. Time—1:58. Umpire Patterson.

NOTES.

FRANKFORT, Ky., August 14th.—Chattanooga, in the Southern League, will get Mike Giddo. Manager Coleman sold him to that club today. He will leave at the end of the season. Pitcher Wright and Outfielder Steele left for home today. They claim they are tired of Frankfort. Wright, however, has notified Manager Coleman he will return Friday. Steele is rich and thinks he will quit the game.

Secretly Married at Maysville

Augusta Chronicle

Mr. Allen G. McClanahan and Miss Florence Miller were united in marriage on Tuesday, July 23d, in Maysville, Elder Roger L. Clark officiating. The young couple were successful in keeping the news of their marriage a secret until the present time. The bride is a daughter of M. P. Miller, while the groom is a son of Mr. Louis McClanahan, all residents of Johnsville.

Narrow Escape

Yesterday noon Clarence Braxton, while cleaning windows in Mayor Lee's second story flat, corner of Second and Market streets, lost his balance and fell out of the window. Fortunately his fall to the pavement was prevented by an awning over the display window on the first floor. He received a bad scalp wound by his head striking one of the iron rods of the awning frame. He was lucky in escaping more serious injury.

LOVE FINDS A WAY

Long Courtship Results in Happy Marriage

Not an altogether surprise was given the many relatives and friends in this city yesterday in the announcement of the marriage in Covington last afternoon of Mr. William Dorn, aged 26, and Miss Julia Dodson, aged 21, who, by preconcerted arrangement, met in the above named city and were joined in holy wedlock.

The groom is one of Maysville's worthy young men, being pharmacist at Williams' drugstore. He is a young man of high moral character and is deserving of the high esteem in which he is held by the community at large.

His bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. Richard Dodson, one of this city's wealthy and prominent merchants, and is a most charming and cultured young lady, prominent in society and Church circles.

After a short bridal tour the happy young couple will return here and take up their abode in a handsome little cottage in East Second street.

THE LEDGER joins with their many friends in extending cordial greetings.

Superintendent J. W. Bradner, Mrs. Bradner and their two sons, James and George, returned home today, after spending two weeks in a delightful outing and rest on the banks of Kinney in Lewis county. Prof. Bradner wrote THE LEDGER that he and his family have been enjoying themselves immensely and they return greatly invigorated by their trip.

Some Racket and Noise

Last night between 1 and 2 o'clock the residents in the vicinity of the First Presbyterian Church were aroused from their slumbers by a terrible commotion coming from Patton Alley between Second and Third streets. It seems the Police were giving chase to three hoboes who were thought to be on evil bent. One of the trio was captured and jailed. He registered as Mr. Brown from Dayton, O.

THE CAUSES OF DISCONTENT.

The theory that the present extraordinary prevalence of industrial unrest and discontent in Great Britain is due chiefly to the increase in the cost of living is partly confirmed and partly discredited by the record. It is undoubtedly true that the cost of living has increased. So has the average of wages. But the former increase has been much greater than the latter. Mr. Asquith the other day made this fact clear. If the year 1900 be taken as the standard, as it may fairly be, and the cost of food and drink and the average of wages in that year be set down as 100, the cost of food and drink in 1911 was 111.6 and the average of wages was 100.3. The former had risen 11.6 and the latter only .3 per cent. That difference has doubtless been keenly felt in a country where the margin of earnings above the cost of necessities of life is always narrow.

"If however, taking a somewhat more extended view, we retain 1900 as the standard year and turn back to 1882, we find that then the cost of living was as high as 142.2, while wages were only 85.8. That is to say, the cost of living was then 30.5 points higher than last year, and the average of wages was 14.5 points lower than last year. It is impossible to escape the conclusion, therefore, that the condition of workingmen was considerably worse then than it is now. Moreover, those conditions were not confined to that single year. From 1879 to 1893 the cost of living only once fell below 109, while only twice did the average of wages rise above 90, and most of the time it was below 85. Surely, discontent should have been more marked and general then than now, if the contrast between cost of living and rate of wages had been its chief cause.

It will probably be judicious to ascribe the the unrest and discontent in Great Britain and also elsewhere, even here, partly to that cause but also to various others, of widely differing natures. In more than one country political agitation and the formation of labor parties must be held largely responsible. Thus in Great Britain and France extensive strikes have been fomented for the expressed purpose of demoralizing the functions of government and of forcing government itself into complete subservience to trade union dictation. Such movements generally spring, not from distress, but from prosperity among the workingmen. The discontent must be reckoned as not alone economic, but also political, and in the latter aspect it will command far less sympathy than in the former.—New York Tribune.

Rozenfelt is a human bull moose whom many other animals love to follow.

PUTTING IT SUCCINCTLY.

"Discharged without honor—the whole colored race of the South." Thus the Springfield Republican speaks of Theodore's "Lilly White" policy at Chicago. That is putting it succinctly, and completely. And neatly.

Nothing more arbitrary was done by the much talked of Taft steam roller.

It was said at the time, by sundry persons and newspapers, that although Col. Roosevelt was caterwauling about injustice at the hands of Taft he could be as high-minded as anyone when the circumstances seemed to demand it.

This illustration has come hot upon the heels of the Roosevelt protest.

Lord what phonies these politicians be!—Frankfort State Journal.

WILSON AND THE WAGE EARNER.

What can the American workingman expect of Woodrow Wilson? That is the question that every wage-earner must put to himself before he casts his ballot.

Prof. Wilson stands in all of his writings and utterances as a sugar-coated free-trader, and has repeatedly declared that wages should be established in competition, not only in America, but with the world.

He is opposed to a protective tariff and to the maintenance of the American standard of wages.

The following is taken from the testimony by Prof. Wilson before the tariff board of 1882, showing his views upon the policy of protecting the American wage-earner from competition with the products of pauperized European and Chinese labor:

"By Commissioner Garland.

"Q. Are you advocating the repeal of all tariff laws?

"A. Of all protective tariff laws; of establishing a tariff for revenue merely. It seems to me very absurd to maintain that we shall have free-trade between different portions of this country and at the same time shut ourselves out from free communication with other producing countries of the world. If it is necessary to impose restrictive duties on goods brought from abroad, it would seem to me as a matter of logic, necessary to impose similar restrictions on goods taken from one state of this union to another. That follows as a necessary consequence; there is no escape from it."

The attitude of Prof. Wilson toward the wage-earner is further emphasized in his baccalaureate sermon delivered at Princeton university on June 13th, 1909:

"Labor is standardized by the trades union, and this is the standard to which it is made to conform: No one is suffered to do more than the average workman can do. In some trades and handicrafts no one is suffered to do more than the least skillful of his fellows can do within the hours allotted to a day's labor and no one may work out of hours at all or volunteer anything beyond the the minimum. I need not point out how economically disastrous such a regulation of labor is. It is so unprofitable to the employer that in some trades it will presently not be worth his while to attempt anything at all. He had better stop altogether than operate at an inevitable and invariable loss. The labor of America is rapidly becoming more unprofitable under its present regulation by those who have determined to reduce it to a minimum. Our economic supremacy may be lost because the country grows more and more full of unprofitable servants."

Does the American wage-earner want to elect to the presidency a man who would reduce their pay envelope to the European and Asiatic standard?—Commercial Tribune.

Wonders Reported in Germany.

The use of simple herbs as remedies instead of the more concentrated and usually more dangerous inorganic substances, has been revived very widely of late. In Germany a new school of physicians has arisen which throws out almost a whole of the pharmacopoeia and relies on an adaptation of the method of wild animals in curing themselves. . . . N. Y. World.

It was Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., who first advocated the extended use of some of our native roots, such as: Golden seal and Oregon grape root, mandrake and queen's root, black cherrybark. These are the chief ingredients in Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been so well and favorably known for nearly half a century. A harmless cleanser and stomach tonic that nature has provided.

J. DONALD MATTHEWS of Ogdensburg, N. Y., says: "I suffered for over five years with what the doctors told me was dilated condition of the stomach, associated with a catarrhal condition of some, and nervous heart. I had tried enough pills, hiemuth, penitan, rhubarb, etc., to float a ship and naturally thought there was no cure for me, but after reading what eminent doctors said of the curative qualities of the ingredients of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I gave it a fair trial. Took the 'Discovery' and also the 'Pleasant Pellets' and can truthfully say I am feeling better now than I have in years. I cheerfully give permission to print this testimonial, and if any 'doubting Thomases' write me I will put him wise to the best all-around medicine in the country to-day."

VAST IMPROVEMENTS

PLANNED BY OFFICIALS OF STATE FAIR IN BUILDING EQUIPMENT.

New Grand Stand is Twice the Size of Old One and is Magnificent Structure.

With the greatest line of exhibits in the way of live stock as well as of all other products of which the state is famous, already guaranteed for the Kentucky State Fair this year, it is the prediction of those in charge of the arrangements that the exhibition to be held the week of September 9-14 inclusive, will be the biggest and best ever seen in the South or Middle West, and that it will mark an epoch in the history of agricultural and live stock exhibitions. Not since the Kentucky State Fair was inaugurated ten years ago has the same amount of interest been shown in the event as that being taken this year by the officials and the public spirited citizens throughout the State, insuring the greatest fair, from an artistic and display standpoint at least, in the history of the institution.

Chief among the improvements at the Fair Grounds this year, will be that of the enlarged grandstand which, when completed the latter part of August, will be twice the size of the stand that has been used to accommodate the crowds the past four years. The new addition to the stand will be of the same concrete construction as the part now standing and when completed the stand will have a seating capacity of five thousand people.

VAUDEVILLE SHOWS

OF HIGH GRADE WILL BE GIVEN AT STATE FAIR AT NIGHT.

Trained Stallions and Elephants Among Remarkable Evening Attractions September 9-14.

The big night show at the Kentucky State Fair this year will be the most elaborate ever prepared by the management of the institution. Believing that night patrons of the fair would rather witness high-class amusement than to spend their time in walking over the grounds in a vain effort to see many of the exhibits which naturally close at night, Secretary Dent has secured some of the most noted acts known to the show world, which will be seen in the magnificently lighted livestock pavilion each night, beginning at 8 o'clock. The management has gone to an expense of $5,000 to guarantee this list of attractions, among which will be seen Herzog's performing stallions, six in number and jet black and regarded as the most famous animal act in the world. The five Merkel Sisters, noted female acrobats; The Okuras, Japanese wonders; The Whirling Dervishes, styled the "Human Butterflies;" Robinson's live performing elephants; The Eddy family in two highly sensational acts; The Hengler Troupe of Russian Dogs and other acts equally as high class.

IN MAYSVILLE

THE EVIDENCE IS SUPPLIED BY LOGAL TESTIMONY

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Maysville what can it be?

Mrs. Della Luneford, 328 E. Front street, Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills completely and permanently cured me of kidney complaint and I am glad to confirm all I said in 1908, when I publicly endorsed them. I attribute my kidney trouble to a strain which started with sharp shooting pains through my kidneys, and a dragging down feeling through my hips. I was afflicted regularly with dull headaches and dizzy spells, and often if I had not caught hold of something for support I would have fallen. I was in that condition for several years, up one week and in bed the next. I finally began to notice the symptoms of dropsy, and in a short time I was suffering from this trouble. My feet began to swell and my hands also were afflicted at times in the same way. At night I was restless and always felt tired. I read of a similar case being cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, and I got this remedy at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They relieved me so much from the first that I got another supply, and before long I was entirely cured. Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life."

OUR WEEKLY SPORT LETTER

BY C. H. ZUBER.

CINCINNATI, O., August 14th, 1912.

While hope may not follow the tip of the sage by springing eternal in the breast of the managers of the Chicago Nationals and Philadelphia Americans, it is giving quite an extensive performance these days, according to the declarations of Manager Chance of the Cubs, and Manager Mack of the Athletics. Chance declares that there is a conspiracy to prevent the Cubs overtaking the New Yorks, but that despite the handicap, the Chicagoans expect to overtake the Giants before the end of the season. The fact that the St. Louis Cardinals, alleged to be one of the conspirators, pulled the Giants down in their percentage in their recent series, puts the kibosh on Chance's ridiculous "conspiracy" claim. However, there is no doubt that the Cubs are playing better ball these days than Chance's men, so that Chance's bid for consideration as a pennant winner must receive serious consideration. In the American League the Bostonians have been holding their own during the week. This does not dismay Manager Mack, who thinks the Boston twirlers are due for a slump and will bring the team back to a lower position. In order to help along this prospect, Manager Griffith, of the Washingtons announced that Walter Johnson will pitch four of the next season games between Boston and the Senators, and he hopes to overtake the Red Sox in this series. All of which indicates that this will not be such a bad fall season in baseball after all.

The Cincinnati Club is bending every effort to secure high class material wherewith to strengthen the weak spots that have developed on the team during the present season. Shortstop and second base are considered the departments most in need of bolstering up, and exorbitant inducements are being offered for men in these positions. The second baseman desired is Bill Sweeney of Boston, or Otto Knabe of Philadelphia. Negotiations now are on for both these men, and whoever is secured will manage the Reds next season. Miller Huggins of the St. Louis Cardinals, also has been mentioned in connection with a deal, but is not as likely a candidate as Sweeney or Knabe. For the shortstop position Butler of St. Paul, is desired. He is a heavy hitter and also possesses high class ability as a fielder. A large price has been offered for him. Two of the leading Class AA minor league pitchers have been secured in Bruck and Packard of Columbus, and it is expected that a dependable catcher and an outfielder will be added to the list of recruits before long.

The Reds have high hopes of getting back into the first division again during their series at home, which opens with the double header here today. During these games they will meet the four Eastern teams, with the Bostonians as the attraction on Sunday, August 18th, and the Phillies on Sunday, August 25th. It is with the latter team that the real fight for first division honors is on, and these contests are certain to be marked by some extraordinary performances. The New Yorks will play two games during the coming series, which will mark the last visit of the Eastern aggregations to the West during the present season.

Getting old? Going back? Afraid to meet some of the younger fighters? Not "Lil Abner" Johnson, no such. The black champion, pretending to be pained by reports reflecting upon his stamina, ability and courage, but really affected by a noise like easy money from New York, has rescinded his ultimatum of some weeks ago, of quitting the fighting game, and now comes forth with an avowed willingness to again take a turn in the ring. Emissaries of a New York sporting club are in Chicago now to sign "Black Jack" to an agreement to fight Joe Jeannette in New York, with a $30,000 bait attached to the offer, and there is ever reason to believe that Johnson will accept.

Where despair ruled among the racing men of Kentucky three years ago, the utmost optimism now prevails. This is shown by the action of the new Louisville Jockey Club in making the added money in the Kentucky Endurance Stakes $7,500, giving that event a total of $15,000. And in adding this amount, the officials declare that it is not at all improbable that this added money will some day reach $50,000. All the star performers now in training in the United States, Canada and Mexico are eligible to this stake, which will be run at Louisville on October 7th. It also is likely that a foreign horse will be sent over to try for this four mile race. And the operation of the pari-mutuel betting machines in place of the bookmakers may be thanked for this prosperous condition of turf affairs.

Nothing of the piker in the make-up of Ad Wolgast, the light-weight champion pugilist. Wolgast has been approached with a proposition to fight Paddy McFarland. Wolgast has expressed a willingness, not to say an eagerness, to take on Paddy, insisting however, that if the match is made, there shall accrue to the aforementioned Ad Wolgast the sum of $22,500, whether the said Wolgast is carried out of the ring on the shoulders of his seconds, a winner, or is toted out on a stretcher by a couple of flunkies, a loser. As yet this proposition has not allowed the promoters to recover sufficiently to make snower, but the chances are that a match will be made for some time next month, and that it will take place in New York City.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Fourteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elgin, Ill.—"After fourteen years of suffering everything from female complaints, I am at last restored to health. "I employed the best doctors and even went to the hospital for treatment and was told there was no help for me. But while taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use until I was made well."—Mrs. HENRY LEISEBERG, 743 Adams St. Kearneysville, W. Va.—"I feel it my duty to write and say what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female weakness and at times felt so miserable I could hardly endure being on my feet. "After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following your special directions, my trouble is gone. Words fail to express my thankfulness. I recommend your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. G. B. WHITTINGTON.

The above are only two of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which show clearly what great things Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound does for those who suffer from woman's ills. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

FAIR IS UNDER TWENTY HEADS

Kentucky's Big Show Is Divided Into Departments Under Efficient Chiefs

THE ORGANIZATION IS IDEAL

Member of Board of Agriculture to be in Charge of Each Branch of Work Assisted by Competent Superintendent.

Twenty departments have been arranged for at the Kentucky State Fair this year and each department will be presided over by a member of the State Board of Agriculture, and in addition to the various departments having the personal supervision of a member of the board each has been provided with a competent superintendent, thus insuring to exhibitors and visitors alike careful attention. The following is the manner in which the departments have been arranged and the member of the board and the superintendent in charge of each: Horses, Commissioner J. W. Newman, member in charge, R. H. Lillard, Lawrenceburg, superintendent; Mules and Jack Stock, James M. Terry, Cynthiana, member, Guthrie M. Wilson, Bardonia, superintendent; Beef Cattle, R. J. Bassett, Leitchfield, member, W. R. Moorman, Jr., Glendale, superintendent; Dairy Cattle, M. A. Scovell, Lexington, member, E. A. Farra, Nicholasville, superintendent; Swine, J. L. Lettler, Harbids Creek, member, L. C. Owings, Jeffersonton, superintendent; Sheep and Goats, H. M. Froman, Ghent, member, W. T. Chilton, Campbellsburg, superintendent; Poultry and Pigeons, J. W. Newman, member, J. L. Gribble, Louisville, superintendent; Vegetables and Melons, J. L. Lettler, member, Charles Scholtz, Jr., Louisville, superintendent; Field Seed and Grain, G. N. McGrew, Bayou, member, H. C. Lovelace, Boston, superintendent; Tobacco, James M. Terry, member, Judge Frank P. Schree, Carrollton, superintendent; Horticulture, Fred R. Blackburn, Stanton, member, W. H. Clayton, Hebron, superintendent; Woman's Department, G. N. McGrew, member, Mrs. H. S. Vansant, Frankfort, superintendent; Farming Implements, R. J. Bassett, Leitchfield, member, F. M. McKee, Versailles, superintendent; Forestry and Minerals, Fred R. Blackburn, member, George S. Lee, Carrollton, superintendent; Students Judging Contest, J. W. Newman, member, Prof. J. J. Hooper, Lexington, superintendent; Education, H. M. Froman, Ghent, member, Mrs. John L. Woodbury, Louisville, superintendent; Dairy Products, Fred R. Blackburn, member, Prof. J. J. Hooper, Lexington, superintendent. For the department for plants and flowers C. R. Van Meter, of Lebanon, will be the member in charge and he will also be in charge of the racing department, while in the dog department Prof. M. A. Scovell will be the member having direct supervision.

Already the members in charge of the various departments as well as the superintendents have gone to work to assist Secretary Dent and Assistant Secretary L. B. Shropshire in arranging for the exhibits in their departments and from now until the gates are thrown open to the public the morning of Monday, September 9, these officials will be kept busy completing the details for the big show.

BENCH SHOW A FEATURE

Of Kentucky State Fair—Will Probably Be Greatest Dog Display Ever Seen in State.

Perhaps the biggest and best dog show ever seen in Kentucky, will be witnessed at the Kentucky State Fair the week of September 9-14. Heretofore the dog show feature of the State Fair has been confined exclusively to collies, but this year the management has decided to have a bench show for all breeds of dogs, and to that end dog fanciers throughout the state have been invited to participate in the show. Since the invitations were first issued by the management through the press several weeks ago many of the fanciers in every section of the state have joined the movement to make this feature of the fair a success. It is doubtful if there is a breed of dog known to this section of the country that is not bred and raised in Kentucky, and it is the purpose of the officials of the fair to have every breed represented. For several years the breeders of dogs, other than collies, have endeavored to interest the management of the State Fair in a bench show that would include all breeds. The bench show will be under the personal supervision of a man who is well versed in the breeding of dogs, and valuable prizes will shortly be named, to be distributed to the winners in the various classes.

The show will be held under the rules of the American Kennel Club. A bench show with the approval of the American Kennel Club will more than likely attract high-class dogs from New York, Chicago and all parts of the country.
